12 v.

13 THE BOEING COMPANY, et al.,

14 Defendants.

CASE NO. C21-0896JLR

MINUTE ORDER

15 The following minute order is made by the direction of the court, the Honorable
16 James L. Robart:

17 During the May 1, 2024 pretrial conference, the court emphasized that it is 18 “essential” that the jury have definitions of Zunum’s alleged trade secrets. (5/1/24 Tr.
19 (Dkt. # 594 (sealed)) at 27:3-7.) The parties indicated that they are in the process of 20 meeting and conferring concerning these definitions. (See id. at 27:14-28:17.) To ensure 21 that this issue is resolved prior to trial, the court ORDERS the parties to submit a joint 22 statement with definitions that may be given to the jury. If the parties cannot agree on

1 one or more definitions, they must submit competing statements concerning those
2 disputed definitions.

3 The joint statement or joint statements are due by no later than 12:00 p.m. PDT
4 on Monday, May 13, 2024. If the parties submit joint statements concerning any
5 definitions, they should be prepared to discuss them with the court on May 15, 2024.

6 Filed and entered this 7th day of May, 2024.
